Peada believed in Christianity.

At Medeshamstede he built a monastery.

The Vikings invaders stole silver and gold.

They did terrible things that could never be told.

Peterborough wasn't built in a day,

Here's a song to tell you the way.

There wasn't a king and there wasn't a queen, it all started with the River Nene.

Peterborough city wasn't built in a day.

The Anglo-Saxon Chronicle does say,

How William the Conqueror built a castle on a mound,

And how Peterborough Abbey was twice burned down.

Peterborough wasn't built in a day,

Here's a song to tell you the way.

There wasn't a king and there wasn't a queen, it all started with the River Nene.

It all started with the River Nene.
